Closing Market is your single best way to increase efficiency, streamline communication, expedite the closing process and gain a competitive edge. This is all because of a single digital connection housed within RamQuest's title and settlement solutions that gives you advantages that simply cannot be found anywhere else.

Closing Market enables real-time communication and collaboration with countless integrated partners such as:

- Title Search Providers
- eRecording Companies
- Lenders
- Loan Origination Solutions
- Underwriters
- And More

Closing Market enables you to do what you do today, but in a purely digital and much more efficient way. You can order services for a file within a matter of minutes using the extensive network of established service provider integrations. Additionally, you can collaborate on the CDF in real-time with your lender partners through the integrations that Closing Market enables. And, all of this can be done without ever having to leave your RamQuest title production solution!

In today's post-TRID environment, being an integrated title and escrow provider will give you unprecedented competitive advantages. Lenders are scrutinizing title companies like never before and, as a result, are turning more and more to integrated providers. As an integrated title/escrow provider on RamQuest's Closing Market you will be able to facilitate faster turn times and, even more importantly, you will offer an increased level of security and transparency for your lender customers that will allow you to capture new business.

Closing Market clearly enables you to differentiate your business, provide superior service and gain significant advantages not available elsewhere.

Closing Market Partner Notes:

What are customers saying about their Closing Market experience?

"Last year, with the rollout of TRID, I saw the need for increased communication and integration with our lender partners. So I started researching and actually reached out to our lender partners to find out how we were going to communicate after October 3rd. Closing Market was the solution for us! It is one marketplace that gives our users integration with the products and companies that we work with, including our underwriters and lenders. I'm excited to see where Closing Market is going because I know RamQuest is working very hard to add even more providers to the network."

Amanda Brumelow - Director of Closing Operations
WACO Title

"The best thing about RamQuest? Closing Market. I love Closing Market. I love the fact that all the new portals -- Real EC's Closing Insight and the vendor products that we use -- are integrated with Closing Market. My users don't have to leave the software at all. They don't have to have multiple logins that they can't remember. It's just a nice, seamless integration and it works very well."

Liz Davis - Director of Administration
Northwest Title Family of Companies

"Using Closing Market has been really great for our company! It is simple to just reach out to our vendors using the integration...and then their returned product is automatically back in our system. It's amazing and significantly cuts down on human error."

Nicole - Vice President - Escrow Operations
One Nation Title

"We love the integrations offered through RamQuest's Closing Market. They solve many problems when we're trying to work with our underwriters or some of our other services."

Lisa Walt - Vice President - Operations/Area Manager
